Market Commentary

Oil prices fell today as energy players are expecting a ramp in production from key producers Saudi Arabia, Russia, and the United States. The Saudis are offering additional cargoes of light grades to key Asian markets that have been disrupted by reductions from Venezuela, Libya, and Iran. President Trump spent his day behind closed doors with Russian President Vladimir Putin, and based on Putin's comments from a few days ago, it is likely the two are discussing how the US and Russia may work together to stabilize oil prices. Libya is expected to lose another 160,000bpd due to employees who were abducted over the weekend by armed assailants. WTI and Brent traded down today in the amount of -$2.95 & -$3.34, to close at $68.05 & $71.99.
