Oil prices had a volatile session as gasoline inventories jumped by more than 10MM/bbls with sliding demand as new Covid cases jump. Crude inventories dropped by 2.1MM/bbls and distillate inventories rose by 4.4MM/bbls. "Implied product demand – particularly for gasoline – slumped, suggesting that the public were cautious about travel in the wake of surging cases of the Omicron variant. These fears are likely to persist for a few weeks yet," wrote Caroline Bain, chief commodities economist at Capital Economics. Fed minutes showed the Central Bank is contemplating raising rates faster than the market is anticipating. WTI traded up $.86 or 1.13% to close at $77.85. Brent traded up $.80 or 1% to close at $80.80.
