| Market Commentary |
|---|
| Folks what a ride - Crude prices rose more than one per cent on Friday as traders reconciled the impact of a missile attack on an oil distribution facility in Saudi Arabia with a possible release of oil reserves by the U.S. WTI crude ended up closing up $1.56 (1.4%) |
| at $113.90 per barrel. Brent crude settled up $1.62, also up 1.4 per cent, to US$120.65 per barrel. Yemen's Houthi group took credit for the attack and said that they had attacked a Saudi Aramco site with missiles. Both benchmarks notched their first weekly gains in three weeks — Brent rose more than 11.5% and WTI gained 8.8% per cent. The market has been wrestling with |
| Russian crude and what to do with it. This attack by Yemen is not helpful. Have a safe weekend. |
